CATALOGUE.

In case the binding is not mentioned, it may be understood that the books are in paper covers. As to the condition of the volumes, those of a Theological or Scientific character are generally in as good order as when they left the bookseller, others are of course in the usual state of second-hand books from private libraries.

This collection is the Working Library, as distinguished from the Oakland Female Institute Library, of the late Dr J Grier Ralston, eminent alike as a scientist and a teacher. Should any objectionable title be found in this Catalogue, it may safely be said, that book formed no part of the Ralston Library.

LIBRARIES.

Individuals or Estates having valuable libraries to dispose of, can always find a purchaser for ready money by addressing the undersigned.

Will make arrangements to visit and examine large libraries for sale in any section of the country, with a view to purchase.

Will buy small libraries or single volumes. Particular attention given to collections of Pamphlets. Though pamphlets are usually little regarded, it is true that they often comprise the most valuable portion of old libraries, and it is equally true that libraries falling into the hands of persons unacquainted with their value are often stripped of all that makes them desirable, solely for the profit of the junk-man and the paper maker. Too many instances of this kind will occur to the mind of every intelligent book collector.

Will also purchase Coins, Medals, Antiquities, Bric-a-brac, Arms, Armor, Engravings, Autographs, Pre-Historic Relics of Stone and Copper, such as Axes, Tomahawks, Celts, Skinners, Peelers, Chisels, Gouges, Wedges, Tubes, Banner-Stones, Pendants, Gorgets, Amulets, Masks, Pestles, Mortars, Discoidal Stones, Plumb-bobs, Sling Stones, Slung Shots, Pipes, Daggers, Spear heads, Arrow points, Bunts, Drills, Needles, Beads, Hammers, Wampum, Tablets, Hoes, Spades, Sacrificial Knives, all objects in Red Hematite, and especially all in Copper of American origin.

Will also purchase Modern Indian Arms, Bows and Arrows, Spears, Javelins, Knives, War Clubs, etc.

Also, all articles of curiosity from the South Sea Islands, War Clubs, Paddles, and articles of dress or domestic use.

Consignments of all the above articles solicited for sales which are held every few weeks in New York and Boston. Will correspond on the subject with parties interested.

Correspondents will please address their favors from October 23, to November 3, care of Messrs. Bangs & Co., 739 Broadway, New York City.
